[1] Wed Aug 31st

My dear Alice -

You know how very pleased & glad we shall be to see Mr. Wood who is coming this eve. I can tell about you Fren & the business -

What a shame that Fren has neuritis! oh dear! at dear!
Mr Wood should have been that he would surely come to night -

The Buells went very early AM & Mrs Lynen came in PM to see & see her brother will off tomorrow Rob was at San Carlos Sunday

said Mother had about decided on an electric Automotia & cost $2700 30 months per keep - if she gets pleasure instead of more worries I'm glad & let us hope she will - Thank you uncle John for the type written poetry - I was about to copy the "Young old" from Mrs Colli letter, how very good it is & her letter too! all these letters are so kind as to send to me we notice what the dearies say about the decentest meeting at Mt Wilson & day & all the work a most interesting occasion for you all & every body interested & concerned - I know what a most genial & delightful host your uncle John is in his entertaining many of those gentlemen what a "feast of reason & a glow of soul"

 You must remember much to write or tell me as you know how eager I am to learn & interested in detail even - just the tribute from Mr. Muir is a gem, sparkling pure & brilliant - I am so pleased to have it with his autograph
